

Dear Mr. Drechsler,

Thank you ever so much for your generous contribution, the laptop and scholarship money. I'm delighted to say the computer is working fine and has been a great help to me already, it came at a time that I really needed it. It runs extremely well and fast, the battery also last a long time when not attached to the power directly. Thank you again for this great contribution not only to myself but to other students as well. I hope that you continue to help students who need it and I will undoubtedly be forever grateful to you and your family. May your business thrive I hope all the best for you because generous people deserve great things. If half the world today had your generosity and thoughtful I'm sure the world would be much better. The scholarship money will go toward my college education and I hope that one day I can do what you did for me to some other student. Thank you again for all that you have done for me and I'm sorry for writing this letter so tardy.

Best wishes,

Juliana Miguel

P.S. - Sorry again for the tardiness of this letter believe me when I say that I didn't intend on it taking so long. Thank you again.
